About this course

Lecture: MWF 9:00am – 9:50am, Lagomarcini W0262
Course URL: https://bb.its.iastate.edu/
Prerequisites: MATH 265 (or MATH 265H)
Computing: R software will be used for this course.
Final Exam Calendar: http://www.registrar.iastate.edu/students/exams/fallexams

Description: Probability; distribution functions and their properties; classical discrete and continuous distribution functions; multivariate probability distributions and their properties; moment generating functions; simulation of random variables and use of the R statistical package. Credit for both STAT 341 and STAT 447 may not be applied toward graduation.

Homework: Homework assignments will be posted on the Blackboard course website. These assignments will be due at the start of Thursday's lectures. Discussion with friends and classmates is strongly encouraged, yet the final assignment you submit must be your own. Copying solutions from others is not a good way to learn and will not be tolerated. No late homework will be accepted. Solutions will be posted on the blackboard course website soon after the due dates.

Examinations: There will be two midterm examinations, given during regular class time (date will be announced a week before the midterm during class). You have the entire class period (50 minutes) to work on them. The final will be on Friday, May 6, 2016, in classroom, from 7:30am to 9:30am. Final exams CANNOT be taken early!

Grading: Your grade for the course will be determined by the 8 homework assignments (15%), the midterm exams (40%) and the final exam (45%). Students are guaranteed to receive the letter grade based on the scales shown below. However, the instructor reserves the right to modify the grading scale so as to improve the letter grade if warranted by circumstances (e.g. unusual high level of difficulty of problem sets).

- 92% -100%  A
- 89%-91%  A-
- 85%-88%  B+
- 80%-84%  B
- 75%-79%  B-

Disability Accommodation
Iowa State University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Sect 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you have a disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, please contact (instructor name) to set up a meeting within the first two weeks of the semester or as soon as you become aware of your need. Before meeting with (instructor name), you will need to obtain a SAAR form with recommendations for accommodations from the Disability Resources Office, located in Room 1076 on the main floor of the Student Services Building. Their telephone number is 515-294-7220 or email disabilityresources@iastate.edu. Retroactive requests for accommodations will not be honored.

Dead Week
This class follows the Iowa State University Dead Week policy as noted in section 10.6.4 of the Faculty Handbook http://www.provost.iastate.edu/resources/faculty-handbook.

Harassment and Discrimination
Iowa State University strives to maintain our campus as a place of work and study for faculty, staff, and students that is free of all forms of prohibited discrimination and harassment based upon race, ethnicity, sex (including sexual assault), pregnancy, color, religion, national origin, physical or mental disability, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, or status as a U.S. veteran. Any student who has concerns about such behavior should contact his/her instructor, Student Assistance at 515-294-1020 or email dso-sas@iastate.edu, or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance at 515-294-7612.

Religious Accommodation
If an academic or work requirement conflicts with your religious practices and/or observances, you may request reasonable accommodations. Your request must be in writing, and your instructor or supervisor will review the request. You or your instructor may also seek assistance from the Dean of Students Office or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance.
